Report On Family Gets Together

Being social and socializing is one of the key requirements for a human being. Since we connect the term “Social” to our immediate friends, we often tend to lose the touch from our professional colleagues as well. As large number of people work in big corporate, they tend to distance the professional relation from getting into a personal one. People believe in sorting life in two different platters namely personal and other one as professional. We find it strange in spending our day majorly with our office mates and then avoid getting social with one another. We definitely do that but it is essential to manage office get together as well in order to enable each one to work in a stress free environment. As people work together in offices, it is essential to arrange a get together wherein people can easily discuss light issues, keeping work aside. This strengthens the relation and trust among colleagues and relieves people from stress in working together.

MGI organized a family get together cum post diwali celebration for all staff members from higher authority to lower one. Chairman, Vice Chairman, Registrar, Principal, Faculties Staff, Admin Offices, Admin Staff and Supporting Staff all were present with the families.

Program started by lamp lighting and a short speech on necessity of official get together by Registrar, Principals. There were lots of fun games conducted by Dr. Neelu Quaiyumi, Prof. Mradulata Chouhan, Prof. Anand Purohit and Prof Amit Purohit, for the family members and children. Delious lunch preparation was there followed by dance and stage performance and some tongue twister game was the centre of attraction. Program was ended up with a Musical band performance.
